DISCUSSION

City of Belen Flag Proposal: Councilor Frank Ortega

Mayor Cordova reported that approximately 10 years ago a Belen Flag had been created. Leona found that flag and introduced it to the Mayor and Council. Councilor Ortega expressed his desire to create an official flag. Three designs were presented for review. Discussion was held. Positive points were discussed regarding each design. Councilor Aragon mentioned that the Building Blocks Grant was being prepared and one of the flags would correspond with their goal. Councilor Ortega stated that these new flags had been drafted with the intent of avoiding controversy. In the past there was issues with the Zia symbol and the Nativity Scene. The new design embodies the State of New Mexico, and the City of Belen’s heritage. Even though it was not an action item, discussion was held, a design was selected, and the City Manager was directed to research the situation, and provide a resolution or proclamation as needed to adopt the flag. Once approved flags will be placed at all the City Buildings.

COMMUNICATION FROM CITY COUNCIL

Councilor Darleen Aragon reported:

She attended an Economic Development meeting on June 9th she mentioned that the board is trying to enforce the importance of board members attending the meetings. Because this group is in its infancy, there is more work to be done and attendance is critical.
She in conjunction with Belen Main Street Project are working on the Building Blocks Grants. They are wanting to incorporate the stairway, the acequia, and the walkway under the bridge to generate more interest in that area. They are planning on placing “Way-Finder” banners leading to the Harvey House and the Historic District.

She and Councilor Wayne Gallegos helped serve breakfast at the Belen Senior Center for Father’s Day. She said it was very hectic. There were lots of participants and only 5 servers.

She met with staff from the Harvey House. Their big concern is the “Bugg Lights”. She assured them that she would do all that she can to ensure that “the show must go on.” They talked about sharing some of the decorations with Ana Becker Park, however, the majority of the decorations will remain at the Harvey House.

She also discussed the need for donations for the museum. They are in need of memorabilia from the 1930’s and 1940’s. They need items like old iron beds, trunks, etc. They want to set up one room to resemble the house mother’s quarters and one to resemble a Harvey Girls rooms. She suggested running a story or an ad in the News Bulletin asking for donations. Mayor Cordova commented that several people have items that they might want to donate, we just need to get the word out,” if we ask, we will receive.”

Councilor Frank Ortega reported:

He and Leona Vigil attended the meeting with the Belen Schools regarding the DCE sewer line. He said everything is moving in the right direction. He will be meeting with Molzen Corbin to start working on the Ground Breaking details. He wants all the State Representatives that were instrumental in securing the funding to be invited.

He stated that he, Eric Greene, Jim Rendi and Steve Tomita had been working on the Veteran’s Memorial. The $1,500 for the scope of work has already been approved and he is anxious to move forward. A Ground Breaking will be forthcoming.

He mentioned that the water fountain at the Ana Becker Park was inoperable and he would like it repaired.

Councilor David Carter reported:

He attended a meeting with the “Follow The Star” committee. It looks like this years event will be bigger and better.
He also attended the DCE Sewer line meeting, he felt it was very productive. He is awaiting the breakdown from Molzen Corbin to show what each entity will be responsible for paying.

Mayor Jerah Cordova reported:

He attended a Legislative Dinner on June 15th at Fat Sats. Also in attendance were Alonzo Baldonado and Kelly Fajardo.

He had a constituent meeting on Saturday June 18, 2016.

June 20th he met with Economic Development regarding Camino Del Llano. He felt the meeting went well.

Also on June 20th he, City Manager Leona Vigil and City Attorney Renee Barela-Gutierrez signed the necessary documents for the GO Bonds to be processed. Money from the GO Bonds will be available July 20, 2016 allowing us to move forward on the new fire station and the sidewalks.
